Italianate Casing

5215 [7/8 x 1-7/8]

3103 [1/2 x 1/2]

8051 [5/8 x 5-1/2]

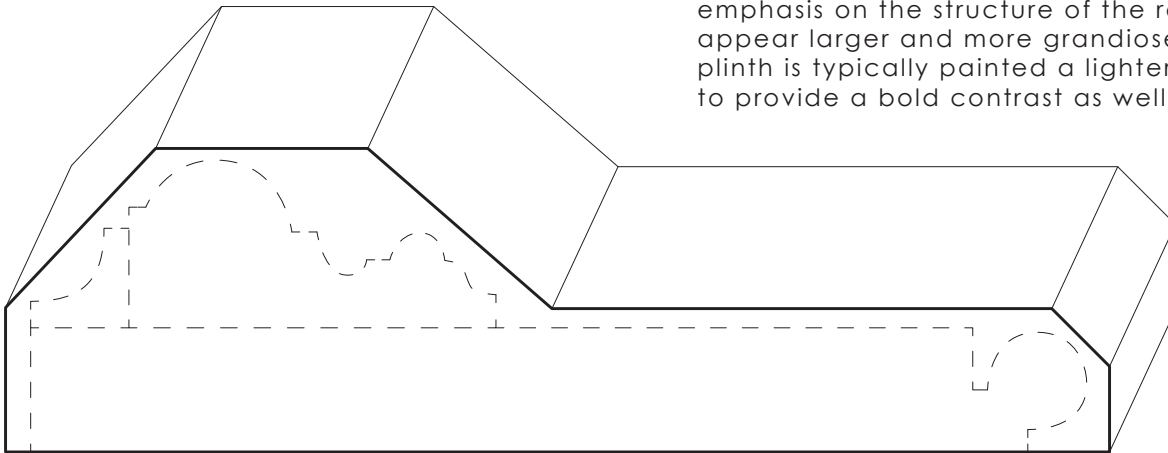

While decorative, Italianate style casing and trim is both bold and symmetrical. Adhering to classical design principles helps to ensure visual harmony no matter how decorative the casing profile. This design philosophy allows homes to incorporate flourishes and details without permanently dating a space.

Italianate Plinth Block

8548 [1-5/8 x 5-3/4]

Italianate style plinths are typically much larger than other architectural styles to deliver a strong vertical emphasis on the structure of the room helping it to appear larger and more grandiose. The Italianate plinth is typically painted a lighter color than the wall to provide a bold contrast as well.

Italianate Baseboard

5215 [7/8 x 1-7/8]

S4S [7/8 x 7]

Italianate style baseboards are a fundamental element of crafting the elegant and sophisticated grandeur of Italian renaissance architecture. This style is grander, wider, and bolder than most others, incorporating decorative details like scrolling leaves and other floral motifs to create a baseboard that was as imposing as it was beautiful.
